@ClimateEnvoy

Excellent conversation today with our long-term partner, Dr. Sultan Al Jaber, the UAE Special Envoy for Climate. I look forward to strong & productive collaboration on tech, investment, and regional leadership as we work together to ensure global action on deep decarbonization.

@NASAPersevere

Thank you, @HopeMarsMission. You and I are both here because of the rich legacies before us, and the persistence and creativity of our teams. Let's make them proud.

This Month in History

In February 2018, the UAE Women's National Hockey Team traveled to North America to celebrate the National Hockey League's "Hockey is for Everyone" month. The team met with professional and local hockey teams, government officials and community leaders in Washington, DC, Chicago and Ottawa. Through the sports exchange, Emirati, American and Canadian players increased cultural understanding, broke down stereotypes and created lasting friendships.
