UAE, US and Israel Ambassadors Turning Words into Actions on Abraham Accords

In a first, Ambassador Al Otaiba participated in a forum with his diplomatic counterparts, US Ambassador to Israel Tom Nides and Israeli Ambassador to the US Michael Herzog. They marked the numerous achievements realized by the Abraham Accords. The event, hosted in partnership with Jewish Insider, explored the commercial successes and people-to-people connections made possible by the diplomatic breakthrough.

Ambassador Al Otaiba reflected on the historic normalization, "Amidst a pandemic, amidst travel restriction and masking and lock downs...Two countries that essentially did not know each other, very enthusiastically embraced each other, different cultures, different languages, different religions."

Celebrating International Women's Day today feeling even more inspired following a week-long trip to the UAE and witnessing the harnessing of young female leaders on full display!

From meeting with female parliamentarians, youth leaders, Ministers, the Gender Balance Council, students and more, this cultural diplomacy exchange allowed for fruitful conversation, a deepening of understanding, and bridge building.

Thank you to YPFP (Young Professionals in Foreign Policy) and the UAE Embassy - Washington, DC for supporting young professionals in this space with this unforgettable journey and my fellow delegates for the endless conversation and opportunities to learn!
