US-UAE “PACE” Framework to Catalyze $100bn for Clean Energy Projects

This week, the UAE and US launched a new partnership to accelerate the energy transition, advance shared climate goals and strengthen global energy security. The Partnership for Accelerating Clean Energy (PACE), will catalyze $100 billion in financing and other support, in addition to deploying 100 new gigawatts of clean energy in the US, the UAE and emerging economies around the world by 2035.

President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan and President Biden celebrated the landmark partnership in a phone call on Wednesday. The two leaders reaffirmed their shared commitment to climate action and recognized PACE as a significant catalyst to reach net zero by accelerating investment in clean energy projects, technologies and resources.

“ Strengthened by decades of close security, economic and energy cooperation, the UAE-US partnership on climate action and the energy transition is now a significant facet of our overall relationship.”

Yousef Al Otaiba
UAE Ambassador to the US

“ The US-UAE close and strategic alliance will now join forces to accelerate the global energy transition to a cleaner and more sustainable future. PACE is testament to the deep commitment our countries share to urgently address the climate crisis...[the partnership] will help deliver a safe and reliable global energy system that can cleanly power the world for generations to come. ”

Amos Hochstein
Special US Presidential Coordinator

Bill Gates Thanks UAE President for Polio Reduction Efforts

On the occasion of World Polio Day (October 24), philanthropist Bill Gates thanked President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan for his support in the fight to eradicate polio.

In partnership with countries around the world, the UAE has helped reduce the global polio burden by 99.9% and prevented an estimated 20 million children from being paralyzed.

Since 2011, President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed bin Zayed Al Nahyan has committed more than $376 million to support global polio eradication efforts, which is part of his commitment to end preventable diseases that affect the world's poorest and most vulnerable communities.

This Month in History

Five years ago this month, the Louvre Abu Dhabi opened its doors to the world. Since its opening, it has quickly become a regional hub for arts, culture, education and exchange.

Today, the museum houses over 600 pieces of historical, cultural, and artistic works from around the globe. From Renaissance paintings to ancient Chinese carvings, 15th-century world maps, and contemporary art made by UAE artists, Louvre Abu Dhabi has been dubbed “the first universal museum in the Arab world.”
